bill under Act 5 CAC, as the present claim is more than one year old. According to Jot order No. 9 the Comptr should have refused & returned the bill to the Rev. Comr for obtaining Sanction in the first instance. This is apparently a Case sent up by the Rev. Comr in April and consequently prior to the issue of G.O. referred to. As this is a claim verified by the Comptr, Sanction may be given by this Branch as before and a draft Sanction is put up. The general question may be considered after the issue of the order.

7. There should be a reasonable limit of time within which promotions and increments are to be sanctioned by the sanctioning officers. This is very necessary in the interests of the officers affected and in the interests of Govt also. The Comptr proposes that the period may be fixed at one year and that if they are not sanctioned within this period sanction of Govt should be obtained. This period seems to be sufficiently long & may be adopted. A circular order may be put up for facilitating consideration

15 The giving of promotions in such cases is not compulsory on the part of the Superior officer but optional. The draft circular requires that if he decides to exercise the option he must do so within a reasonable time. Promotions which are ~~recommended~~ given years after the time to which they relate – portably by officers who were not in charge of the office Department at that time – cannot be regarded as necessary in the interests of work & so need not be sanctioned. In this view the draft would seem to be all right.

SIR,

In forwarding herewith duly verified for sanction of overnment under Article 5, Civil Account Code, the accompanying bill n account of arrears of pay due to Shekdar Narasinga Rao of the angalore District for the period from 1st June 1911 to 30th April 913 for Rs. 115/- received from the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore ith his letter No. 13639 dated 27th April 1915, I have the honour to state that it is reported that in May 1913 the Shekdar was promoted rom the 2nd to the 1st Grade from 1st May 1913 by the then Deputy Commissioner, although his promotion was due from 1st June 1911. In ugust 1914, the Shekdar who was ordered to be retired from 1st November 1914, applied for an extension of one year since he was not promoted to the 1st Grade from the due date and as his pension was affected thereby. In October 1914, the present Deputy Commissioner revised the order of the previous Deputy Commissioner by giving effect to the promotion from 1st June 1911 instead of from 1st May 1913 and thus the claim which is 4 years old has arisen now. This is one of the many instances in which belated promotions are sanctioned years after they fall due. The verification of such old claims involves much time and labour and this office is further compelled to keep

The Comptr in his letter No. DAM, 2489 dt 6.7.15, brings to the notice of Govt the great inconvenience caused to the Audit office by promotions being sanctioned long after the date on which they are due and has instanced the case of Shirkdar Narasinga
